Standard:

Catholic Charities Disabilities Services recognizes that the laws and regulations and advisories that govern the provision of services to those individuals we support are subject to frequent change and reform. The agency also recognizes its obligation to be aware of any such change in law or regulation.

Procedure:

- 1) Directors, or department Managers, will be responsible to keep abreast of any change in law or regulation and to be aware of any advisory issued within their area of expertise or span of control.
- 2) Directors, or department Managers, will be responsible to ensure that agency standards reflect current law and regulation within their area of expertise or span of control.
